

I think the Wisconsin's no call list should stay as is. I pay for my phone in order to contact the people I wish to contact, not to be interrupted at dinner and woke up to have someone try and sell me something I don't want. I will be very upset if it is changed.
Jerrold Kasdorf